

TRAVELMAKERS: INTRODUCTION TO THE PROGRAM AND TRAVELLING ON A BUDGET TO PARIS

The name of our program is Travelmakers, the idea is to have a weekly show that will tackle all issues regarding travelling as a student, especially travelling on a budget. The show length is 40 minutes, divided in groups of ten minutes for each of the the four cities we talk about in every program, (including the introduction along with the first city in the first 10 minutes, and the dismiss along with the fourth city in the 10 last minutes).

I am going to recreate how would a show of this program be, selecting the first group, which includes the introduction and the first city, which, in my case, is going to be Paris. In relation to the scheduling time, it will be broadcasted at 4p.m. (as we established), right before dinner, at a time when people will probably be relaxing. I've decided to do this because, in a real broadcasting, I'd rather be the first talking so I finish earlier and so I am relaxed for the rest of the program (as I already did my part), and I've chosen Paris because it was one of our city options and is the one I know the best.

SCRIPT

Houston:

- Good morning Travelmakers and welcome to our show! Today we present you a new section called "How to travel on a budget", and this time we are going to Paris.

- So first of all what we need is a place to stay at. Considering that it's a world capital, Paris is a fairly compact city. If you have a central starting point, you can get to most of the city's main sights by foot. The city is divided into 20 districts, called "Arrondissements." Numbering starts in the center of town, at the Louvre, and spirals clockwise out. We recommend choosing a hotel in a central arrondissement, perhaps sticking to 1-9. Choosing a hotel in these neighborhoods will put you in the center of the city. You'll save on transportation, especially at night, when you would be otherwise tempted to hop in a taxi or Uber to get home.

On the other hand, if you don't mind a commute, you can save by staying outside the center. We recommend you 3 inexpensive hotels near the suburbs worth trying.

1. Hotel Le Donjon, located in Vincennes.
2. Le Ruisseau, located in Saint-Mandé.
3. Le Figuier ("The Fig Tree"), which is located in Ivry-sur-Seine/Ivry.
- 4.

- So you may be asking: what can I see in Paris? Well there are so many places you can visit:

1. The Louvre, which is the world's largest art museum and a historic monument, where you will see amazing pieces of art as the well-known Mona Lisa. It is located on the Right Bank of the Seine in the city's 1st arrondissement.
2. The famous Eiffel Tower, located on the Champ de Mars. It is 324 metres (1,063 ft) tall, and has three levels for visitors, with restaurants on the first and second levels. The top level's upper platform is the highest observation deck accessible to the public in the European Union.
3. The Arc of Triomphe, standing at the western end of the Champ-Élysées at the centre of the Place de l'Étoile. The Arc de Triomphe honours those who fought and died for France in the French Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars, with the names of all French victories and generals inscribed on its inner and outer surfaces. Beneath its vault lies the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier from World War 1.
4. The Notre Dame, which is a medieval Catholic Cathedral on the Île de la Cité in the 4th arrondissement. It was consecrated to the Virgin Mary and considered to be one of the finest examples of French Gothic architecture. Unfortunately, The Cathedral is closed after the fire in April of 2019.
5. Finally a place you can't miss is the Palace of Versailles, the principal royal residence of France from the XVII century, under Louis XIV until the start of the French Revolution. It is located in the department of Yvelines, in the region of Île-de-France.
- 6.

- Mmm I'm getting a little hungry, where can I eat? Well, these are some interesting restaurants you may wanna try.

1. Bistrot Victoire, in the 1st arrondissement. Located just a quick stroll from the Louvre, Bistrot Victoire is definitely on the tourists' circuit. However, we've also seen many locals dining there as well.

2. Robert et Louise, in the 3rd arrondissement. Robert et Louise is your ticket to carnivore heaven. Vegetarians will be happy too with a delicious mushroom omelet on the menu.
3. Le Baron Rouge, in the 12th arrondissement. Run by a friendly group of vin lovers. Le Baron Rouge really is the wine bar of your dreams.
4. Breizh Cafe, in the 4th arrondissement. With so many crepe stands all over the city, you'd think it would be easy to find a tasty version. But it's a lot harder than you think! Our solution is to head to Breizh Crepes where you can sit down and dine on a tasty buckwheat crepe from the Breton region and enjoy a glass of traditional cider.

That has been all for today, we hope you've been inspired and that you go on a trip very soon. See ya!

Control	Microphone 1
FADE IN " Olly Murs - Troublemaker ft. Flo Rida" PC (00:00)
V-FADE " Olly Murs - Troublemaker ft. Flo Rida" PC (00:08) & "Música cinematográfica moderna/ Música instrumental" as bed, PC
	"Good morning Travelmakers, and welcome to our blog. " [...] "Today, we present you a new section called" [...]
FADE IN " La vie en rose - Zaz" PC (00:10)	"So first of all what we need is a place to stay at. Considering that it's a world capital, Paris is a fairly compact city."
FADE OUT " La vie en rose - Zaz" PC (01:12)	"Le Figuier ("The Fig Tree"), which is located in [...]."

FADE IN “ Claire de Lune - Alan Dunn” PC (01:12)	“So you will be asking: but, what can I see in Paris? Well there are so many places to visit.”
FADE OUT “ Claire de Lune - Alan Dunn” PC (03:01)	“Finally a place you can’t miss is the Palace of Versailles.”
FADE IN “ Parlez-Moi D’amour - Dana Boulé” PC (03:01)	“Mmm I’m getting a little hungry, where can I eat?”
FADE OUT “ Parlez-Moi D’amour - Dana Boulé” PC (03:48)	“Du Pain Et Des Idées, in the 10th arrondissement.”
V-FADE “Música cinematográfica moderna/ Música instrumental” as bed, PC & “Harry Styles - Canyon Moon (Official Audio)” PC, YOUTUBE (03:48)	“That has been all for today, we hope you've been inspired and that you go on a trip very soon. See you!”
FADE OUT “Harry Styles - Canyon Moon (Official Audio)” PC, YOUTUBE (04:08)		